Mr.D.Brijesh i/by Khandeparkar & Associates for the petitioner.

Mr.M.P.Thorat AGP for the respondent.

Date : 4th May, 2007.

PC

1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned AGP for the respondent/State.

2. All the benefits as per the judgment of this Court in Writ Petition No.306 of 1986 have been already given to the petitioner. The only objection remain is about his placement in the seniority list. However, the said grievance ought to have been raised in the earlier petition. Now, as a result of the superannuation on 31.7.2005 he is not in service and therefore, the MAT has rightly observed that the said point cannot be considered at this stage. It is further to be noted that when draft temporary seniority list was published on 1.1.2005 the petitioner has not raised any objection and therefore, the list was finalised. In the said circumstances, we find that the judgment passed by the MAT is proper and no interference is called for. Petition is therefore, rejected.
